PRESS RELEASE

International Day for Biodiversity is celebrated every year on 22nd May and theme for this year was “We are part of the solution”. This day is celebrated to increase awareness and understanding of Biodiversity issues.

General Zorawar Singh Memorial Degree College Reasi also celebrated the day by organising an intra-college online photography competition “SNAP & SHARE” on the theme “Nature from my home”. Students were asked to click photographs of anything related to nature and they had to briefly describe the entry in 100-150 words. Many students participated in the event and shared amazing photographs of birds, trees, fishes, landscapes, mountains, flowers etc. First prize was won by Nasreen Kouser and Priyanka Sharma of B.Sc Sem-II, second prize by Vishal Chandan of Sem-IV and third prize by Rekha Devi and Vanshika Bandral of B.A Sem- II.

Event was organised by Dr. Anu Sharma, Head, Dept. of Botany, Dr. Amit Bali, Head, Dept. of Chemistry and Prof. Sunil Magotra, NCC officer under the able guidance of Worthy Principal of the college, Dr. Chander Shekhar Gupta.

It was a joint initiative of Botany and Chemistry department under the aegis of “AZAADI KA AMRIT MAHOTSAV”. These events are being organised from time to time to keep the students aware of the important days and events. Such events also give a platform to the students to showcase their talent. Winners will be awarded e-certificates.
